

Preliminary Call for Papers

2nd Annual Workshop on the Law and Economics of Intellectual Property and Information Technology

27-28, July 2006
Manchester, United Kingdom

The Workshop on the Law and Economics of Intellectual Property and Information Technology aims at stimulating discussion between international scholars on the subject of IPRs and information technology issues. It intends to provide a friendly venue for researchers to present and discuss their works and findings. To this end submissions from young as well as senior scholars working in the above subject areas are welcomed. The workshop operates on an interdisciplinary basis.

Submissions are invited on any topic (both theoretical and empirical) that uses law and economics method to analyse aspects of intellectual property or information technology. To be considered for the workshop, please submit a detailed abstracts or full papers before May 31, 2006 to Dennis Khong at denniskhong@lycos.co.uk.

The list of accepted papers will be announced by June 12, 2006 and full papers should be sent by 10 July, 2006, in order to be made available on-line.

The conference will be held at the University of Manchester campus. There is no participation fee. Further details will be sent to participants.

Should you have any enquiry regarding the above event, please feel free to contact the organizer at the above email address.