

Call for Papers

The

3. French-German Talks in Law and Economics

will take place December 1st and 2nd, 2006 at Kassel. This conference is the fourth annual workshop of the Gesellschaft für Recht und Ökonomik (German Law and Economics Association).

Papers from all fields of Law and Economics are welcome. However, priority will be given to papers which, in the tradition of earlier workshops of the series, discuss legal phenomena specific to continental-European law, with or without corresponding phenomena in US law. Papers on EU-law and on national law have equal priority. Economic analysis may both be normative or positive.

Younger researchers are especially encouraged to present their work in front of more experienced Law and Economics scholars. The conference language is English.

The deadline for submission of paper proposals is July 15, 2006. If you want to present your work, please email a PDF version of your paper (or an abstract of at least two pages) to g.wangenheim@uni-kassel.de

Please do not forget to include the authors' names and affiliations, the name of the prospective presenter, and the postal as well as the email address of the corresponding author. Acceptance decisions will be communicated by the end of August.

The final version of the complete paper is due November 1st. Regardless of whether they present a paper or not, all participants are asked to indicate their willingness to serve as a commentator.

The venue of the workshop will be hotel "Steinernes Schweinchen", located at the outskirts of Kassel. The costs for the hotel including two lunches and the conference dinner on Friday night will be 94 €/ 145 €/ 225 € without accommodation / including accommodation for one night / including accommodation for two nights and a welcome dinner on Thursday night. As last year, it may be possible to have some of these costs covered by sponsors, in particular for younger researchers.

In August, the conference homepage will be launched, providing further information. The accepted papers will be made available for download on this homepage. After the conference, the revised papers can be included into the German Working Papers in Law and Economics at Berkeley Electronic Press.

I look forward to meeting you at Kassel!
