Call for Papers

11th Annual Conference of the French Association for Law and Economics

The 11th annual conference of the French Association for Law and Economics (AFED) will take place on

October 8 and 9, 2026

It will be preceded by a roundtable on October 7 about the evolution of the use of mediation, organized in collaboration with the Robert Badinter Institute.

The AFED conference offers a forum for discussion and exchange for researchers and practitioners interested in topics that can be analyzed through a multidisciplinary approach in law and economics.

Submission (in French or English): full papers or extended abstracts (at least 2 pages) on original topics related to the economics of law.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Todd J. Zywicki

George Mason University
Foundation Professor of Law
George Mason University,
Antonin Scalia Law School

The AFED Young Researcher Award is given for a presentation made during the conference (see conditions on the website).

Publication: two articles may be selected for publication in the special European Associations issue of the European Journal of Law and Economics.

To participate in the AFED annual conference, you must be a member of AFED. To become a member go to : <https://afed.hypotheses.org/>
